

The instructor's face blocks my view

Little girls lined up moving up and down to the music with one hand on the bar

The angry face spits when she points to a little girl in the back

The little girl is watching her own simple dance in the mirror

Oh dear

This is not what madam expects

My child was Isadora Duncan

Prancing swinging -swaying in a lovely rainbow breeze

Her long hair flowing this way and that

Hi mommy she shouts in an excited voice

Running past the angry woman

Hand in hand we left and never looked back.
