

There was an old lawmaker

Who was in a real stew

He created so many problems

He didn't know what to do

So it punished the poor

They must sacrifice he said

While the folks who bought him

Were all well fed.

Jack took a bill

Up the hill

To save our water

Jack was knocked down

and laughed out of town

And the bill came tumbling after
